FUTURITY RULES

1. Owner and handler must be a member in good standing of the Keystone Quarter Horse Association at the time of nomination.
2. Any owner may nominate as many horses as desired, however, there will be no substitutions after the Futurity Chairperson receives the nomination.
3. Postmark designates official entry date (not postage meter).
4. A check, money order, or cash for the total class fee(s), a completed nomination form, a copy of the Registration papers, KQHA membership for owner and exhibitor, for each horse are the only means of nomination acceptable by the Futurity Chairperson. (Only one horse per nomination form).
5. 70% of entry fees will be applied to payout along with added monies for the class and 30% of entry fees will apply to futurity expenses.
6. Late fee ($50 after September 1) will not apply to payout of the class.
7. Any returned check will be charged a $35 fee.
8. All fees accepted by the Futurity Chairperson become part of the Futurity and WILL NOT BE RETURNED FOR ANY REASON, with the exception of the death of the horse. Veterinarian documentation must be submitted to Futurity Chairperson for refund.
9. Six or more entries are required for 100% of advertised added money to be added to total purse for each class. Classes with fewer than six entries will have 50% of the advertised added money added to the total purse.
10. KQHA Futurity class pay outs will follow the following pay back percentages:

Places Paid	Breakdown of Percentage
1	100
2	60/40
3	50/30/20
